

Front Range Residential Recycling Rates, 2016

CITY	DIVERSION RATE
Boulder	54%
Lafayette	35%
Louisville	48%
Loveland	35%
Fort Collins	32%
Longmont	31%
Golden	30%
Edgewater	20%
Denver	18%
Thornton	14%

These rates include only recycling and composting efforts from single-family homes. Data doesn't include multi-family properties or commercial businesses.

Sources

Boulder: City of Boulder, Zero Waste Boulder

Denver: Denver Public Works, Solid Waste Management, Denver Recycles, 2015 Annual Report.

Edgewater: Lisa Skumatz, 2016. Presentation to Westminster City Council, August 15, 2016 Study Session. Accessed at <http://www.ci.westminster.co.us/CityGovernment/CityCouncil/Agendas>.

Fort Collins: City of Fort Collins, 2016. Trash and Recycling in Fort Collins, EPA Presentation. Accessed at <https://www.epa.gov/sites/production/files/2016-04/documents/mitchell.pdf>

Golden: City of Golden, Sustainability Initiative, Solid Waste & Recycling.

Lafayette: Doug Short, 2016. Personal communication, 2015-2016 Residential Trash, Recycling and Composting Data.

Longmont: City of Longmont, Sustainability Plan, Draft 2016.

Louisville: John Aguilar, 2013. "Trash Fees Set to Rise in Louisville Next Week, as Diversion Rate Stagnates." Accessed at http://www.dailycamera.com/louisville-news/ci_24186129/trash-fee-rise-louisville-next-week-diversion-rate.

Loveland: R3 Consulting Group, 2016. Regional Wasteshed Planning Study, Final Report.

Thornton: Lisa Skumatz, 2016. Presentation to Westminster City Council, August 15, 2016 Study Session. Accessed at <http://www.ci.westminster.co.us/CityGovernment/CityCouncil/Agendas>.